Duet Sponsors Free Clothing Swap
For Grandparents Raising Grandchildren

(Phoenix, AZ) – Are you a grandparent raising a grandchild? If so, Duet™ is providing you with an opportunity to recycle outgrown children’s and adult clothing and swap it for slightly used clothing of another size. We understand finances can often be difficult when raising a “second family.” Grandchildren frequently outgrow their clothing, which can make it difficult to purchase new attire.

That’s why Duet™ is hosting a clothing swap on Saturday, June 19 from 10 a.m. - 1 p.m. at its office, 555 W. Glendale Ave., Phoenix. By participating in this clothing swap, grandparents will provide other kinship caregivers with the clothing they need for their grandchildren. Donations will be accepted starting May 15.

- WHAT: Clothing swap for grandparents raising grandchildren.
- WHY: To provide grandparents and other kinship caregivers with the opportunity to recycle gently used and outgrown clothing and pick up new clothing for their grandchildren.
- WHO: Presented by Duet, this clothing swap is for both grandparents raising grandchildren and kinship caregivers.
- WHEN: Saturday, June 19th from 10 a.m.-1 p.m.
- WHERE: Duet, 555 W. Glendale Ave., Phoenix, AZ 85021
- HOW: Contact Duet at (602) 274-5022 ext. 44 or email Dominguez@duetaz.org. Donations will be accepted starting May 15th.

Duet is a local non-profit promoting health and well-being through a broad range of services to homebound adults, caregivers, faith communities and grandparents raising grandchildren.
