VOLUNTEERS URGENTLY NEEDED IN GLENDALE AND GREATER PHOENIX

(Phoenix, AZ-) Duet is urgently seeking volunteers to assist a growing list of homebound seniors who need help. You are invited to become a volunteer on Saturday, February 18. You can make a difference in the lives of seniors affected by challenges associated with aging by attending a one-time orientation.

There is an immediate need throughout the Valley for volunteers to help with in-home services such as grocery shopping, minor home repairs, rides to doctor appointments, computer training and friendly visits. Visit our website www.duetaz.org and see the Ongoing Services Map to see who needs help in your area.

- WHO: Adult volunteers who are interested in providing one-on-one help to seniors.
- WHAT: Duet Volunteer Orientation - Volunteers are trained to help homebound adults who need assistance. Following orientation, volunteers will be paired with someone in their area who needs assistance.
- WHERE: First United Methodist Church Glendale, 7102 N. 58th Dr., Glendale, AZ, 85301
- WHEN: Saturday, February 18, 9 - 11:30 a.m.
- WHY: There are hundreds of older adults throughout the Valley who require immediate assistance with transportation, getting groceries, or simply need a friendly companion.
- HOW: To register for the volunteer orientation call (602) 274-5022, visit www.duetaz.org or email volunteer@duetaz.org. Please bring your driver's license and reference phone numbers.

Duet™ is a local non-profit organization that promotes health and well-being through a broad range of services to homebound adults, caregivers, faith communities and grandparents raising grandchildren. www.duetaz.org
